

Rare Doings at Camberwell

Some of the Hidden History of the area

Sultan St area... streets
"of very bad character" late 19th Century

Rioting Chartists 1848

Elmington Estate

BNP vs. anti-fascists 1991

Camberwell New Road

Old Tram/Bus Depot:
Rioting in 1926
General Strike
Strike 1958,
squatted 1998

Magistrates
Court

Elmington Road

Una Mason
in Brunswick
Square

Brunswick
Park

Camberwell Trades Council, Mayday demo, 1926

D'Eynsford Rd

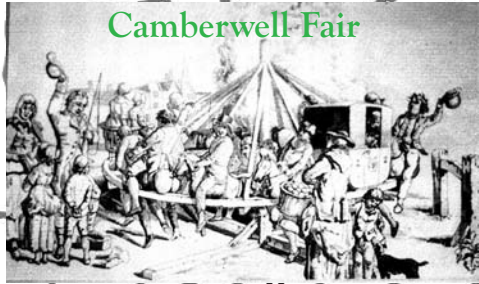

Camberwell
Green

Baths

Brunswick Park

Old
Workhouse 1727-1905,
later
Guardians
Office

Art College
occupied
Town
Hall 1920/1999

Camberwell Fair

Grand Cinema
Teddy Boys &
Girls Riot, 1956

Camberwell
Fair

Church St

Squatting community
1980s-90s

Peckham Road

Town Hall:
Housing Peace
Camp 1981.

Very poor
lived in yards here
late 19th Century

Old
Muesli
Factory
Squat 1993

Tiger Yard & Cock Yd:
areas of great poverty
late 19th/early 20th C

League of
Socialist Artists

NF marching to Peckham 1980/82

Old Labour
Club Squat
1990-1

John Primero:
first black
person
baptised/buried in Southwark

Stormed by Poll tax rebels 1990.

Early feminist
Mary Hays lived in Camberwell 1804 -
1843

Caricature of John Ruskin
by Gerald Massey

Crawford
Social
Centre
2003

Crawford
Estate

First squatters
in area: Cuthill rd,
Kerfield Crescent &
Allendale rd.
1971

Grove Lane Homeless
Families Dept.
occupied by
Family squatters
1971

Dickie
Dirts
Squat
1983,
1986

Ruskin walking from his house on Denmark
Hill to lecture at the Working Mens Institute

30 De
Crespigny Pk:
lovely house
Squat 1990s

William Blake on his visionary walks

Blake

Bavent Rd:
Squatted houses 1990s.
Mass eviction 1999

Reclaim Bedlam 1997

Maudsley
Hospital

Camberwell Grove
Squatting community 1980s